THE PRIME MINISTER

13 March 2000

Dear José - María,

I am writing to congratulate you on your spectacular election victory. This is a remarkable tribute to your leadership over the last four years. We now have the opportunity to build on the warm and productive relationship already established between our two governments. On a personal level I am delighted that we can continue our close partnership.

With love.

Yours ever
Tony

His Excellency Señor Don José María Aznar
