Nat: "Do you want to play a game with me?"

Sophie: "Yes. Yes, I want to play!"

Nat: "Very good. We are on a island, (yeah) it's the Friouls, (yeah) there is only a little corner shop, a small fishing shop I think (yes) and a few restaurants, that's it."

Sophie: "That's it."

Nat: "I'm going to tell you to redecorate either your kitchen, your balcony or your bedroom. You must use the island's resources, what you can find here and you are to tell me how you will do the decorating."

Sophie: "Oh well it would be quick, very quick to find... I think I would do my sitting room with a fishing net, with some nautical materials."

Nat: "And what about the painting then?"

Sophie: "For painting... well I think I would probably paint the walls... probably, probably blue to evoke the sea in..."

Nat: "And can you find paint here?"

Sophie: "Oh no! You cannot find paint here but you can find boat paint! So I imagine you could use the boat paint. But you know... either you do without or you adapt. That's it."
