| Learning hint It's much easier to learn the correct pronunciation, spelling and gender of words from the start than to unlearn bad habits later. When you learn vocabulary, always learn it together with le or la (and make a mental note of the gender if it's l'). Rather than saying chambre, say la chambre. It takes no longer when you're learning, but you'll be grateful later because anything other than la with chambre just won't sound right. | |
