Learning hint Open a magazine at random and use the pictures to practise French greetings – you can usually tell from the background and the way people are dressed what time of day it is. Don't confine yourself to greeting the people: practise asking how they are – be formal or informal depending on the picture – then introduce yourself and think of how they'd reply. You'll find it a help when you come to do it for real.
