

13. El restaurante - The Learning Section

More Grammar

SAYING 'WE...'

To talk about something you and other people do together, use the form of the verb ending in -mos.

¿Pedimos una botella de vino?      Shall we get a bottle of wine?

It goes with nosotros, nosotras, the word for 'we' which you may hear but don't always have to use.

nosotros, nosotras      we

The endings for regular verbs are:

preguntar: preguntamos      to ask: we ask

comer: comemos carne      to eat: we eat meat vivir: vivimos en Inglaterra      to live: we live in England

And some common irregular ones:

ser: soy, somos      to be: I am, we are querer: quiero, queremos      to want: I want, we want

ir: voy, vamos      to go: I go, we go