To support your transition into work you may also be entitled to :

- A Return to Work Credit

The Return to Work Credit is a tax-free payment of £40 per week paid direct to you on top of your wages for 52 weeks if you work for 16 hours or more per week.

You can claim the Return to Work Credit if you can answer 'Yes' to all four questions below:

1. Have you been claiming one of the following, or a combination, for 13 weeks or more?
  - Incapacity Benefit (including credits only)
  - Income Support (because of your incapacity)
  - Severe Disablement Allowance
  - Statutory Sick Pay for 13 weeks or more and are now claiming an Incapacity Benefit.
2. Will you be working for 16 hours or more per week?
3. Do you expect your personal annual salary before deductions (or income from trading) to be £15,000 or less a year?
4. Do you expect your job to last more than five weeks?

- A Job Grant

You may be entitled to a tax free Job Grant when starting full time work providing the qualifying conditions are met. The Job Grant is paid at one of two rates, £100 for single people and couples without children, and £250 for all lone parents and couples with children.

- Housing Benefit and Council Tax Benefit Extended Payments

Housing Benefit and Council Tax benefit may continue for 4 weeks from the date you start work or increase your hours/earnings, provided the qualifying conditions are met. These payments are known as Housing Benefit Extended Payments. To see if you are entitled, tell the office dealing with your claim as soon as you know you are starting work.

Please remember

- Any outstanding Social Fund loans or Overpayments will still have to be repaid
- Any deductions (eg for Electricity, Gas, Water Rates etc.) being made from your Income Support/ Jobseekers Allowance (income Based) will end. You will have to arrange repayment of these.
