

wales nature&outdoors

Weatherman Walking - Blaencwm

Approximate distance: 5.9 miles

For this walk we've included GPS marker points as an option, should you wish to follow them.

Reproduced by permission of Ordnance Survey on behalf of HMSO. © Crown copyright and database right 2009. All rights reserved. Ordnance Survey Licence number 100019855.

The Weatherman Walking maps are intended as a guide to the TV programme only. Routes and conditions may have changed since the programme was made. The BBC takes no responsibility for any accident or injury that may occur while following the route. Always wear appropriate clothing and footwear and check weather conditions before heading out.

Approximate distance: 5.9 miles

A circular walk to the top of the Rhondda Valley, taking in stunning views, waterfalls and former collieries

1. Penpych woodland car park

51.680414° N, -3.557283° W

This is the start of the walk.

Head East towards the first waymarker and follow a zig zag trail up towards the pine forests and waterfalls.

4. The route on from Penpych

Follow the fence line back to the trail and continue past pine forests on your left and up to an old wall.

2. Waterfalls

51.683514° N, -3.565971° W

On the way you'll pass by two lovely waterfalls

Stop at the largest one and get a closer view before following a steep track up the hill.

5. Old stone wall

51.68722° N, -3.56417° W

Pass the old stone boundary wall and take a right down a gravel track towards the pine forests.

3. Viewpoint over Treherbert

51.684385° N, -3.559732° W

There was a Man Utd memorial flag on the top when we walked up and the views were breathtaking.

6. Pine forests

51.692173° N, -3.564447° W

It's strangely tranquil through the woods but the path can get very muddy.

At the T-Junction, turn left and head up the hill.

wales nature&outdoors

Weatherman Walking - Blaencwm

7. Crossing the Rhondda River

51.70215° N, -3.56172° W

After more pine forests, you'll reach a rocky clearing.

Head down the hill and cross over the metal footbridge and turn left.

10. Iron Age settlement

51.70580° N, -3.56001° W

At the top, veer right and follow a grassy track down past the ruins of the Iron Age settlement known as Hen Dre'r Mynydd.

8. Pool & waterfalls

51.70328° N, -3.56612° W

Head over another foot bridge and you'll arrive at a clear pond and the stunning Nant Melyn waterfall.

11. Rhigos Road watchman's hut

51.70059° N, -3.55323° W

The old watchman here originally began collecting rubbish and creating art out of it on the hillside behind the hut. Take a wander and you'll discover colourful plastic trees and flowers.

9. Rocky steps

Head uphill through the valley towards steps cut into the rock on your right.

Take your time and follow the zig zag track up through the heather.

Note in this pic, Derek is coming down the steps and not up them.

12. Coldra Road

51.691050° N, -3.55151° W

Walk down the snaking dirt road towards the nearby town and houses of Treherbert, lying in the shadow of Penpych.

From here it's a short walk back to the start.